

ELA

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW ASSOCIATION

What is the ELA?

The only professional association in South Africa that serves as a non-profit forum for interactive participation in activities related to the development of environmental law and governance.

Main objective

To promote for the benefit of the public generally the enhancement and conservation of the environment in South Africa and in particular to advance the education of ELA members and the public in all matters relating to the development, teaching, application and practice of environmental law.

Why become a member?

- Meet and engage with practitioners, scholars, decision-makers and other role-players interested in environmental law and governance in South Africa
- Annual ELA conference
- Annual general meeting
- Annual post-graduate student conference
- Regional ELA workshops
- Weekly updates on international, regional and national environmental law and policy developments, training and further education opportunities, new popular and academic publications etc
- Opportunity to engage in Blog-based discussions on recent law and policy developments
- Free copies of the South African Journal for Environmental Law and Policy

Eligible to become a member?

Yes. The ELA welcomes anyone interested in the development and application of environmental law and governance in South Africa.

An existing ELA member?

Check that contact details with the Secretariat are always up to date and let us know of any new ideas and proposed activities. Meet other ELA members on the Blog and make good use of national and regional opportunities to personally meet other members. Invite colleagues and others to join the ELA too – the bigger the association, the bigger the web of South Africans concerned about the state and growth of environmental law and governance in the country.
